

King's Cross Story Palace

If you have a memory of King's Cross, we'd love to talk to you

We are working with the communities of King's Cross to collect personal and untold stories of the past 100 years. We will bring people together to document, share and celebrate our history - for today, and for the future.

Given the huge changes taking place in King's Cross, now is the time to capture these voices.

If you have a story you would like to tell, or know someone who might, please contact Polly or Jan on polly@historypin.org or jan@historypin.org or 0207 253 9781.
